KIDS WILL LOVE THEIR FAVORITE TALE BROUGHT TO LIFE

Who would ever suspect that a tiny little mouse could wear out an energetic young boy? Well, if you're going to go around giving an exuberantly bossy rodent a cookie, you'd best be prepared to do one or two more favors for it before your day is through. For example, he'll certainly need a glass of milk to wash down that cookie, won't he? And you can't expect him to drink the milk without a straw, can you? By the time our hero is finished granting all the mouse's very urgent requests--and cleaning up after him--it's no wonder his head is becoming a bit heavy.

Laura Joffe Numeroff's tale of warped logic is a sure-fire winner in the giggle-generator category. Felicia Bond's hilarious pictures are full of subtle, fun details. And the production by the Minneapolis Children's Theatre Company is sure to entertain both young and old.

ABOUT THE CHILDREN'S THEATRE COMPANY

The Children's Theatre Company (CTC) is recognized as North America's flagship theatre for young people and families, as well as a major cultural and artistic resource in Minnesota.

This is CTC's 19th consecutive year of touring. CTC is located on a campus in south Minneapolis along with the Minneapolis Institute of Arts and the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. It operates in a 60,000 square foot facility built in 1974 and has a 746-seat performance space. Since moving to its current home, over six million children and families have seen CTC productions.

If a hungry little traveler shows up at your house, you might want to give him a cookie. If you give him a cookie, he's going to ask for a glass of milk. He'll want to look in a mirror to make sure he doesn't have a milk mustache, and then he'll ask for a pair of scissors to give himself a trim....
